A Famous Singer.

Robert W. Douglas, Maine's most famous baritone Opera and Concert singer is in Norway for a few days' visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nyborg, formerly of Cambridge, now residents of Norway.

Mr. Douglas is a member of the Metropolitan Opera Co. of New York City and has toured Europe, South America, Canada and the United States as principal soloist with the great Walter Damrosch Orchestra. Mr. Douglas made his debut in 1902 in Washington, D. C., with another great Maine singer, Mme. Emma Eames. Mme. Eames' prediction that Maine had produced another great singer has been verified. Mr. Douglas' summer home is in Lisbon Falls, where he spends his summers.

Guy Frost is soon to move to Auburn.

George Merrill and daughter Gertrude have been visiting his brother, C. H. Merrill, and family. They attended the Odd Fellows' Field Day.

Elsie Favor, a compositor in the ADVERTISER office, is having a month's vacation, part of which she will spend with her brother, Henry Favor, and family at Brockton, Mass.

Mrs. Clarence Merrill was given a pleasant surprise by her brothers, sisters and friends on her birthday, Tuesday evening, June 28th. There were 32 present and she received many pleasant remembrances of the day. Refreshments were served and all enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

There was a good attendance at the Park, Saturday evening. This next Saturday evening and Monday evening, the Fourth, there will be a new line of pictures and songs, which will be followed each evening by roller skating. During the evening of the Fourth there will be a good display of fireworks.

"Along the Kennebec."

"Along the Kennebec," a New England comedy drama now in its third successful season, will be produced at the Norway Opera House, Monday evening, July 4th.

The play is moulded along the same idea as "The Old Homestead," "Shore Acres" and "York State Folks," and deals entirely with country life. Plays of this nature are deservedly popular, inasmuch as they are clean and wholesome and leave a good taste in the mouth. They usually illustrate some good moral principle without descending to the oft times morbid sensationalism of the melodrama. "Along the Kennebec" is said to have met with great favor wherever produced. All special scenery is carried for the production, and a fine band.

The First I. O. O. F. Field Day.

Fine Weather, A Large Crowd, and a Grand Good Time.

The first Western Maine Field day of I. O. O. F. was held Wednesday, at the Fair Grounds. The day was a most beautiful one for an occasion like this and many availed themselves of the opportunity to attend.

Norway and Paris lodges formed at depot square and waited the arrival of the trains which brought several hundred Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and their families. The parade of Odd Fellows was formed under the direction of Albert D. Parks, P. G. of Mt. Mica Lodge, assisted by B. F. Bradbury and Charles Akers, who preceeded the parade on horse-back. Then in line came the Rumford Band followed by West Paris Lodge with 64 in line, Nazinscott Lodge of Buckfield with 42; Norway Lodge with 50. Then came the Paris Band and Mt. Mica Lodge with 60 Odd Fellows. Each wore white gloves and red ribbons.

The parade went to Market Square at South Paris and then to Norway, coming down Pearl and Whitman streets, then down Main and Paris, to the Fair Grounds. The buildings along the line of March were decorated with flags and bunting.

When the noon hour arrived the crowd had immensely increased and it is estimated that there were over 2,000 people on the grounds. At 12 o'clock a grand picnic dinner was enjoyed, and hot beans baked in the ground by Chas. Sewall Penley, hot coffee, milk and sugar were served by the lodge, while the picnicers brought the remainder of the "fixing." Mr. Penley baked 4 bushel of beans, using 100 pounds of pork.

The first of the afternoon there was a tug of war. Those who represented the different lodges were West Paris Lodge, P. E. Fickett; Nezinscot Lodge, G. W. Tilton; Mt. Mica Lodge, Robert Patterson; Norway Lodge, L. H. Cushman; Penacook Lodge, William Kerr; Mt. Abram Lodge, I. H. Wight. C. H. Merrill of Ben Adhem Lodge was timer, and Wallace Strickland of Mt. Mica Lodge was referee. The team was well matched and after some hard tugging the Rumfords were declared winners.

The Mt. Mica Lodge of South Paris won in a contest with Mt. Abram Lodge of Bethel by about the same distance.

Norway Lodge then tried Buckfield Lodge and the Buckfield Lodge were the winners. Mt. Mica then pulled Nezinscott Lodge and Penacook Lodge which they defeated and Mt. Mica received the trophy, the engraved sword and sheath amid the cheering of the crowd.

At the business meeting held under the grand stand it was voted to hold the next Field day at Canton next June.

The ball game was between the Canton lodge and a picked team from the other lodges and the picked team won with a score of 3 to 1.

The fatmen's race which was for men weighing 200 pounds or over was won by William DeCoster, who was given a large wooden fan. A T. Tam was second. Sanford Annis won the potato race, who received a pair of gold cuff links. Mr. Annis also won the 100 yard dash and was rewarded by a box of cigars.

During the afternoon Rumford Band gave a delightful concert in part of the grandstand.

Thrown off a Bicycle.

Ned Shepard, son of John C. Shepard, was thrown from his bicycle last Tuesday evening while descending the Freeman hill, near where they live, striking his head so severely as to render him unconscious.

The skull was not crushed or broken yet Thursday forenoon he had not regained consciausness, but was thought to be improving.

Dr. Oakes of Auburn was called in consultation with local doctors Wednesday afternoon.

Fourth of July Celebration.

The Fourth of July will be celebrated at the Fair grounds this year by two grand games of base ball by the Radcliffes vs. Fort Williams, one of the fastest terms in the State. One game will be at 10.30 a. m., and the other at 2.30 p. m. There will also be other sports, consisting of 100 yard dash, 1 mile bicycle race, throwing the base ball, ½ mile race, 100 yard sack race, and batting the base ball. Prizes will be awarded the winner in each event.

S. H. Hayden and family of Haverhill, Mass., are at their cottage, Haverhill, at Lake Pennesseewassee for the summer.

A special session of Oxford Castle K. S. E. will be held this Thursday evening to elect officers and finish up the business which was not completed at the regular session June 16. At the regular session July 7th. The officers will be installed and an official visitation made by Grand Chief William A. Maxcey. After this session refreshments will be served.

S. Jason Marr was badly injured Thursday by falling from a building. While S. Jason Marr, Horace Cole and Mr. O'Clair were shingling at Horace Cole's the staging gave way and let all three men fall to the ground. Mr. Marr was the most seriously injured and was picked up unconscious and brought home. He is recovering from the effects of the fall and will be all right in a few days.

There was a fair sized audience at the Opera House Tuesday evening, at the play, "The Runaway Banker." The play was a good one and the orchestra furnished some very good music. At the close of the play a concert was given which consisted of music by the orchestra and many very clever stunts by the Kalls, which consisted of juggling with a hat, coat, umbrella, traveling bag, bottles, balls, etc., globe rolling and many other attractions.

Prof. Verne M. Whitman, son of Judge C. F. Whitman, who is teaching the Milford, N. H. high school has been elected as principal of the Laconia City Academy. It is a $1800 position. Mr. Whitman did not apply for the place but his good work at Milford and Peterboro has given him such a reputation in the State that his services were sought by the educational authorities of Laconia Winfield W. Kimball, sub-master at Milford, under Mr. Whitmen, has accepted a similar position at Whitman, Mass., at an increase of salary. They will return to Norway for their summer vacation next week.

Harlan Samuel Flint.

Harlan S. Flint died, Wednesday, June 22nd, at his home at North Norway. Mr. Flint had been in poor health for some time.

He was born in Norway, Nov. 14, 1844, and was the son of Samuel and Hannah (Frost) Flint and received his education in the common schools of Norway. He was a farmer and has always been a resident of North Norway except the past four years when he moved to the village.

Mr. Flint was a member of the 2nd Congregational church, and a member of the P. of H. of Norway, and in politics he was a republican.

On July 23, 1871, Mr. Flint married Mary E. Pingree and six children were born to them, all of whom are living, Della M., wife of A. J. Haskell of Berlin, N. H.; Leslie H. Flint, a farmer in North Norway; Asa P. Flint, manager of grocery store in Whitefield, N. H.; Guy I. Flint, farmer in North Norway; Katherine Flint, pupil in the Norway High school, and Ethelyn Flint, pupil in the 8th grade. He is also survived by a wife and two sisters.

The funeral was held at the chapel at North Norway, Saturday, June 25th, attended by Rev. B. C. Wentworth of Norway. There was a large attendance and those from out of town were:—Mrs. F. F. Stearns and Mrs Hattie Blake, sisters of the deceased, both of Milan, N. H.; Geo. Pingree of Auburndale, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Pingree of Otisfield.

The flowers were many and beautiful and were as follows:—

Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sanborn, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bolster, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wentzel, Mrs. Lizzie Edwards, Mrs. Ada Hill, Mrs. Lillian Palmer.

St. John's Day Celebration.

Oxford lodge and Paris lodge, F.&A.M. celebrated St. John's day, Friday afternoon at the Fair Grounds. The attendance was small on account of the weather which was inclined to be showery during the afternoon.

The principle feature of the afternoon was a ball game between the two lodges, and no small amount of fun was enjoyed from the time the game commenced till the very last play. The Norway lodge had challenged the Paris lodge for the game of ball which upon mutual consent it was to be a game of seven innings, and when the seven innings were played, South Paris Masons held a score of 13 to 9, but as supper was not quite ready it was decided to play the nine innings, and at the end of the ninth the score was 17 to 13 in favor of the Norway Masons. This game caused as much fun for an afternoon sport as one could wish to see. After the game was over the players were somewhat lamed up for most of them were not "in practice."

The supper was eaten on the Grand Stand, which was a picnic supper, with beans baked in the ground by Charles Sewall Penley.

Burton Hamilton's Collie Dead.

The handsome, full blooded Scotch collie belonging to Burton Hamilton died after a week's illness. It was not known whether it was poisoning, but the doctors they had for him thought he showed many symptoms, or that he took cold during Saturday's rain and it developed into a distemper.

His name was Conney, his mother an imported dog that cost the owner $100. Conney was almost human in his intelligence, could be taught almost anything and was always petted like a child in the home. He had a remarkable mild disposition under all provocations, quick to mind, and was a favorite with a host of people here in Norway. His loss is a great blow to his master as he was his constant companion, riding or walking, and being out of health it meant much to him. He is almost inconsolable at the loss of his pet and he watched by his side till he was mercifully chloroformed. He was four years old and his master had had him since ten weeks old.

Will O'Neil Dead.

He was a son of the late Lanty O'Neil of Norway and his mother was Mary Devine before marriage. His father for many years worked for J. L. Horne and Son in the tannery. The deceased had charge of the shoe department for Hopkins, Blasedell, Co., of Malden and was highly in esteem. Cause of death was phneumonia. He leaves a wife and mother.

Mrs. Bertha Sturtevant, who has been taking care of her mother, Mrs. Geo. W. Whitman for several weeks, has returned to the ADVERTISER office. Mrs. Whitman is gaining.

Walter G. Whitman of Salem State Normal school, has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Whitman. He has gone to New York where he will teach in the summer school at Columbia University.

The following persons from Norway are attending the Oxford Universalist Association meeting at Andover, this week:—Mrs. S. B. Cummings, Mrs. C. S. Tucker, Mrs. M. A. Oxnard, Mrs. Lizzie Crooker, Ruth Akers, Mrs. M. C. Ward and Muriel Ward.

Winfield A. Kimball, sub-master of the Milford High school, returned home Wednesday night. He has been elected as sub-master of the Whitman, Mass., High school, and has also been offered a position as demonstrator and salesman for Steinert & Co., of Manchester, N. H. He has not decided which position to accept.

Summer Meeting of the Federation of Woman's Clubs of Norway.

Tuesday afternoon, June 23d, was cool and delightful after the heat of the preceding days, when about 75 ladies gathered in the pleasant new Grange hall for the summer meeting of the Federation of Clubs of Norway.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Libby, Mrs. Frank Danforth called the meeting to order and announced that we were to have the pleasure of listening to a talk given by Mrs. Don Seitz of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Before Mrs. Seitz began her talk we were delightfully entertained by music, Mrs. B. F. Bradbury and Mrs. Eva Willis, accompanied by Mrs. Chas. Akers, singing "Hark to the Mandolin," by Parker. The same ladies sang again later in the day, "Go Pretty Rose."

Mrs. Seitz spoke on "What Club Women are Doing," speaking more particularly of Brooklyn clubs, as she was more familiar with their work. In New York city club going and work is a business, one woman of her acquaintance there belonging to 29 clubs, while in Brooklyn it is a recreation from which women go back home to the care of children and the duties of every day life, rested and refreshed.

Mrs. Seitz mentioned the effort to regulate child labor, the getting vestibules on trolley cars to protect motormen from cold and storm, the abolishing spitting in cars, in public libraries and on the street, the getting play grounds for children in the congested parts of large cities. This beautiful movement started by Women's clubs, has been taken up by many other cities East and West.

The pure food movement also was first inaugurated by women's clubs, the effort to abolish sweat shop work and the movement known as the Consumers' League.

She told us of the D. A. R., and of the D. R., to the latter Mrs. Seitz belongs. They are doing much philanthropic work. Among other things each Chapter is supporting one or two girls in school or college. The members of the D. R. clubs do not know who these girls are, the executive committee of the Chapter deciding all this, but each club contributes according to financial ability. Mrs. Seitz spoke of one meeting of the Chapter to which she belongs, at Atlantic City.

After telling us thus of what women are doing Mrs. Seitz spoke of a delightful visit she and her husband made to charming Lake Mohonk, to the Peace conference there, and then asked for a little more time to tell us of the great movement going on at the present time, to place children in homes who are now in orphan asylums and similar institutions. She longs to see all children in homes, where they can be really children free and untrammeled, not machines, to move, to eat, to rise up, to sit down at the tap of a bell. Mrs. Seitz alluded to the two little boys she has herself adopted.

After this delightful, informal talk Mrs. Stearns, secretary of the Federation, read her report, and as the next meeting is the annual meeting a committee on nomination of officers was appointed: Mrs. Parks from the Barton club; Mrs. Dr. Bartlett from the Browning club and Mrs. John Cullinan from the Veranda club.

The ladies then had an opportunity to meet Mrs. Seitz socially after which they were invited to the dining room where ice cream and cake were served by the committee on refreshments.

This Federation Club meeting, although arranged in haste and under somewhat perplexing circumstances, proved, to those fortunate enough to be present, very delightful and most successful.

Fish and Game Association Meeting.

There was a good attendance at the meeting Friday evening at Engine House Hall. The committee on screening outlet of lake reported. It was the opinion of the committee that the proper place to put screen was at the saw mill dam rather than at the Bridge street bridge and good reasons for so doing were shown. A substantial iron screen of size needed will cost a little less than $200.

It was decided to put in the screen if the funds could be raised. A subscription paper is to be circulated among the citizens, lake and cottage dwellers and with income from membership fees and dues it is expected the money can be got and the screen will go in. The executive committee, A. J. Stearns, M. W. Sampson and W. L. Libby, are to solicit funds. Col. Sampson is to canvass summer visitors and cottage owners.

It was voted to procure notices and post them on all closed brooks which run into the Lake. This work is to be done at once.

Alonzo Brickett.

Alonzo B. Brickett died Tuesday at the home of his niece, Mrs. Oscar Cox, from the effects of a shock. Mr. Brickett was about 60 years of age. He came to Norway some thirty years ago and worked in the shoe shop for a number of years. For over 15 years Mr. Brickett has lived alone, part of the time in East Waterford but mostly at his home on the Waterford Road above Norway Lake.

A week ago Monday, Mr. Brickett was found unconscious by Fred Knightly on the floor at his home. It was found that he was suffering from a shock and he was immediately taken to the home of his niece and everything that medical skill or skillful nursing can do was done for him. Besides his niece he leaves a brother, James Brickett of Providence, R. I.

The funeral will take place this Thursday at the Chapel, attended by Rev. B. C. Wentworth. Burial will take place in the cemetery at the chapel.

Jas. O. Crooker went to the St. Barnabas hospital at Portland, and submitted to a surgical operation, Wednesday. He reported as getting on nicely.

Judge Wm. F. Jones went to Boston the first of the week and expects his mother, Mrs. Otis Jones, to accompany him home the last of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Holt and two children of Waterford visited at Frank Murdock's, Tuesday and Wednesday, and attended the I. O. O. F. Field Day.

Mrs. Charles P. Barnes and children who have been spending several weeks with relatives in Boston and vicinity, returned home the last of the week.

Ida Fields has gone to Peak's Island to do table work.

Mrs. J. K. Huse of Bath is visiting Mrs. H. F. Andrews.

Viola Brown of Norway Center is working for Mrs. Wm. C. Leavitt.

Frank Briggs is making extensive repairs on his house on Cottage street.

Jennie Barrows of Norway Lake is spending a few weeks at E. C. Murch's.

Grace Durban has been visiting her sister in Portland. She returned home Sunday.

Hazel and Doris Foster went to Windham, Sunday, where they will spend the summer.

Josephine Whittier of Concord, Mass., is spending several weeks with Nellie Andrews.

Rev. M. C. Ward will preach at the Hall at Norway Lake, next Wednesday evening.

The Universalist church will close for the pastor's vacation from July 18 to Sept. 1.

The New Idea society will meet with Mrs. T. P. Richardson, Wednesday afternoon July 6.

The Good Templars will not meet on Monday evening on account of its being the Fourth.

Ephriam Durban is at the Sisters' Hospital at Lewiston for appendicitis, and at last reports was gaining.

Lena Schenk of Conimicut, R. I., is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schenk.

Mrs. John Rhodes and aunt, Mrs. Mary Hall, went to Portland and Windham last week visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Cummings of Bemis are visiting relatives in town, this week. They spent Sunday at the cottage by the lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lovejoy started, Wednesday morning, for Idaho, where they will spend a month with Mrs. Lovejoy's father.

George C. Leavitt left Sunday for Woodhale, Mass., where he is to be an assistant to Dr. Drew at the summer school held there.

Mrs. Susan Dudley of Bridgton, who has been spending the past winter in California with her son, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Nellie Wetzler.

H. M. Parker of East Stoneham was in town last Friday and had the balance of his teeth extracted. Mell is in his 75th year and is pretty smart for that age.

Hubert Barker's base ball team and a picked up team of South Paris played a game at the High school grounds, Saturday afternoon, and Norway's won with a score of 6-5.

The Old Overland stage coach was called into use Wednesday and was loaded both inside and on top with people from North Waterford who attended the I. O. O. F. Field Day.

Walter Rand of Curtis Corner, was in town, Monday. He is operating a saw mill and store in his town. It is the business established by his father which he purchased last year.

Mrs. Alma W. Bailey returned from Auburn, where she has been stopping with her cousin, John Greenleaf for some weeks past, last Thursday. This week she goes to the Isle of Springs for a while.

Guy I. Flint and wife were in the village, Wednesday. Mr. Flint's health is improving as he becomes accustomed to the plaster-paris cast he is wearing. He has been home from the hospital about four weeks.

Those who attended the Chapman picnic at Bethel, Saturday from here were Mr. and Mrs. Hermon L. Horne, Ethel Millett, Lona Noble, Dr. Mr. Geo. M. Whibley, Ella Keene, Annette Washburn and Roland Kimball.

Edward J. Scharon who has charge of the polishing for the Novelty Turning Co., went to St. Marie Hospital, Lewiston the first of the week to be opperated on for appendicitis. He is reported as getting on nicely.

O. P. Brooks' horse which was hitched to the delivery wagon became frightened at an automobile at the head of Main street, Tuesday, and started off on the run with the hitch weigh attached. The wagon was over turned but no serious damage done.

Crockett Ridge.

On Wednesday Nate Noble took Mrs. Dunham, Mrs. Algie Crooker and Eva Willis to Oxford Pomona.

Nate Noble and family and his brother Fred and family drove to Portland and and Fort Williams home by way of Ocean Bluff, a trip of 150 miles in their autos.

The Heywood club held a social dance Friday evening which was well attended there being 60 in the march and circle. The guests of honor were members of the Norway High Senior class.

July 4th is to be observed by a Field Day at the Heywood Club House. All attending are to bring a picnic lunch. In the evening there will be a dance. It is hoped to be a great success.

On Sunday afternoon Mrs. Dunham and Mrs. Eva Willis entertained a party of sixteen of the Seniors of Norway High, who were camping at Cole's Island. They played and sang all the old songs. Refreshments of ice cream and cake and delicious grape juice. All had a most enjoyable time.

On Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Dunham and Mr. and Mrs. Noble went to Lewiston in their car. Mr. Dunham went especially to get a pet violin of his which had been there for repairs. Prof. Tayor told Mr. Dunham he could have $500 for the instrument, but Mr. Dunham knows a good violin as he knows a good snow shoe and intends to keep it.

Alonzo Howard Heath.

Alonzo H. Heath died Thursday June 22 at the home of his son, after a few weeks illness.

Mr. Heath was the son of Timothy and Delie (Bennett) Heath and was born in Gilead, April 29, 1831 and attended the public schools of that town.

Mr. Heath married Sarah Blodgett and had five children, only one of whom is now living. Mr. and Mrs. Heath resided on a farm in Greenwood for many years. A few years ago Mr. Heath sold his farm and moved to the village. This spring he decided he preferred to live on the farm and so purchased it back again and moved there but only to enjoy it a few weeks, when he was taken sick and came to the village with his son.

Mr. Heath is survived by a widow and one son, Timothy L. The funeral was held at T. L. Heath's residence Sunday afternoon June 26, attended by Rev. M. C. Ward.

A number from here attended the circus at Lewiston last week.

Philip Everett recently lost his dog. The dog was last seen while he was fishing at Daniels Rips, Crooked River. A week later the dog was found in a dry well near Daniel's Mills. The dog was alive and is now all right.

Geo. E. Haywood of Upton, has been visiting in this vicinity. He left Upton 27 years ago and has since lived in Montana, returning from there recently. He spent the winter with his brother, Dan E. Haywood, in Florida.

Mrs. John Sampson went to the hospital, Sunday morning, for treatment. She was operated on, Sunday forenoon, for appendicitis and had several tumors removed. She is reported as getting along as well as could be expected.

Sara Danforth, who is attending the Normal school at Gorham, has been spending a few days at her home. Miss Danforth leaves this week for The Wiers, N. H., where she has worked for several seasons. Annie Danforth will go there for the summer a little later.

Alfred L. Leferrie, son of Anthony of this town has been promoted by the Berlin Mills Co., for whom he worked as a purchasing agent for them. He is located at Beauceville, P. Q., where he has been for some time past in the employ of the Quebec and St Maurice Industry Co., which is the name of the Berlin Mills Co., in Canada.

Mrs. Don C. Seitz and children, who have been occupying the Leavitt cottage for the past two weeks, were called to New York, Monday. Thursday of this week she is to sail with Mr. Seitz for Japan. They will return to New York some time in September. The children will stay at their summer home at Cos Cob, Conn.

Somebody has been going around peeking in people's windows along in the edge of the evening. At one place he had been seen several times and it became rather annoying. A few nights after he had been seen the last time, there was a noise heard on the piazza, which sounded as if some one was creeping quietly over the piazza. The man of the house, taking in the situation, quietly stole to the door and then, with a sudden bound, landed on the piazza ready to spring upon the intruder, when, much to his astonishment, he only found a large black cat, which was not slow in leaving at this sudden and unexpected reception. Although he was "stung" this time, he feels confident who the peeking parties are.

Doan's Kidney Pills relieve backache,

Cure every kidney ill.

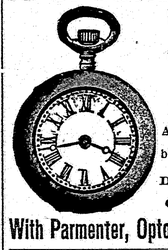

Norway citizens endorse them.

Oscar I. Pitts, Cottage street, Norway, Me., says: "Several years ago I began to suffer from an acute attack of kidney trouble. I caught a severe cold which settled on my kidneys and brought on terrible pains in the small of my back. There seemed to be a congestion of my kidneys and it was only with great difficulty that I was able to pass the kidney secretions. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and deciding to try them I procured a box from Stone's drug store. They helped me from the first and after taking the contents of a few boxes I was cured. I have not had any trouble from my kidneys since. I am glad to give Doan's Kidney Pills my highest endorsement." 26-27

Numerical Enigma.

The answer contains 65 letters, and is a quotation from James Russell Lowell.

4, 41, 3, 49, 59, 58, is consent.
5, 24, 6, 65, 29, is to direct or guide.
2, 35, 12, 39, is one of the United States.
25, 20, 36, 32, 28, 6, is to chide.
33, 31, 38, 27, 10, 48, is calm.
40, 25, 55, 63, is to tarnish.
44, 51, 61, 46, 17, is an arm of a tree.
48, 13, 34, 14, 22, 23, is endeavor.
53, 16, 47, 21, 9, is to roam.
57, 1, 52, 18, 12, is to scatter.
60, 15, 56, 7, 54, is to shatter.
61, 10, 43, 30, 37, 19, is sufficient.
62, 11, 59, 5, 42, is to lift.

Send the answer to Edwin R. Briggs, West Bethel, Maine, and to the first solver I will give five foreign view cards, to the fifth, five colored border cards, to the tenth five comic cards, and to the fifteenth one of Cobb's popular novels.

Now it is easy solving enigmas when one is so fortunate as to rightly guess and set down the key words. There are two States of four letters, and raise, exalt and elate mean "to lift," but a different word is needed. Pilot and train mean "to guide," and placid is "calm," but I have used other words.

The answer to the enigma which appeared in the ADVERTISER of May 20th is:

"There is no fireside, howsoe'er defended,
But has one vacant chair."

Nine sent the correct solution in the order here given:

1. Nina Felton, West Paris.
2. Effie F. Peverley, Bryant's Pond.
3. Alpha, Rumford Corner.
4. I. J. Judkins, Norway.
5. Leonard Harriman, Warner, N. H.
6. Mrs. K. E. Buck, Buckfield.
7. Priscilla H. Blake, Brownfield.
8. Edna McAllister, East Stoneham.
9. Mrs. Nettie McAllister, East Stoneham.

The first and fifth are prize winners, and cards were sent to them on June 6th.

The answer to the enigma printed in the ADVERTISER dated June 3rd is:

"The cowslips spring in the marshes,
The roses bloom on the hill;
And beside the brook on the pastures
The herds go feeding at will."

Seven sent the correct answer in the order here given:

1. Myra Paine, Baldwinsville, Mass.
2. Mrs. S. W. Bradley, Nashua, N. H.
3. Harold Andrews, Portland.
4. I. J. Judkins, Norway.
5. Mrs. K. E. Buck, Buckfield.
6. Mrs. Nettie McAllister, East Stoneham.
7. L. T. Jackson, Portland.

Myra Paine and Mrs. K. E. Buck are the prize winners and the cards were mailed to their addresses on June 13th.

A Norway lady came near being the winner of the first prize, her answer being the first received, but she gave grasses for marshes, and a few other errors caused her solution to be thrown out. Hope she will try again and be more successful next time.

This week I am offering four prizes, and hope all will be won. The answers should reach me on or before July 20th, and the names of all the correct solvers will appear in the ADVERTISER dated August 5th.

SOUTH ALBANY.

Maud Dresser has finished her school at North Waterford and is at home.

Mrs. J. F. Lord and daughter, Mrs. Ernest Brown, have visited Mrs. Lord's sisters, Mrs. Julia McIntire and Mrs. Lillian Marr at North Bridgton.

Several from here attended the Albany Circle which was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. James Kimball. Nearly 100 guests were in attendance.

David F. Cummings of Hebron, who was ill at George Abbott's, recovered sufficiently to enable him and his wife to continue their journey. They visited one day and night at P. P. Dresser's.

Walter Lord carried a party of five to the Lake region, camping out and fishing. A fine time is reported and about 1,200 fish taken by them all. Those of the party besides Mr. Lord were Ernest Brown, Merton Young, George Clark and Elmer Saunders.

George Abbott has some sheep that are running in a pasture that belongs to his brother, Sewall Abbott of Waterford, and one of them being missed search was made for it and its remains were found where it had been killed and eaten by some wild animal, presumably a bear, but Mr. Bear has not been seen yet.

No Excuse.

"No, sah; I never go hunting, sah. It is cruelty."

"But you fish, colonel. Isn't that cruelty too?"

"What is a fish? A creature that has its existence entiahly in watah, sah."

Wrongly Blamed.

"Bobby, are you teaching the parrot to swear?"

"No, mother; I'm just telling it what it mustn't say."

THE AIRLY ONION.

It's time to git the garden spade
An' hustle out the hoe.
Them airly onions must be stuck.
I love to smell 'em grow.

Jist shove the spade down in the ground
An' give it a quick turn;
Then call the Shanghai rooster round
To ketch the airly worm.

Now rake the ground up fine an' smooth,
Mark out nice even rows
An' plant 'em in the kerect sign,
So every onion grows.

By gum, you've got 'em slick an' straight!
I jist kin see 'em grow.
It seems an offul time to wait
To git a mess or so.

But I'll jist sit beside the patch
To ketch the good ole smell.
I'll hoe 'em every day or so
An' sprinkle 'em real well.

Then, when they git jist strong enough
To smell about a mile,
I'll pull a lot an' trim the tops
An' eat a good long while.

I'll spread the yaller butter thick
On Sally's bread, so grand,
An', with a leetle salt fur sass,
I'll eat to beat the band.

If all them folks what's got the grunts
Would put more onions down,
There'd be more smiles a-breakin' loose
An' less ole cranks in town.

FORMULAE FOR FEEDS.

CHICK FEED.

	Pounds.
Cracked wheat	25
Cracked corn	10
Millet	10
Oatmeal	10

This is the basis for true feed, and the following may be added if desired:

	Pounds.
Kaffir corn	20
Cracked peas	10
Cracked rice	3
Rape	3
Hemp	2

After a month or six weeks use this coarser scratch feed:

	Pounds.
Whole wheat	20
Coarse cracked corn	15
Oats	15
Kaffir corn	20
Barley	5
Millet	5

If you desire to use forcing mash or broiler bread, try the following:

FORCING MASH.

	Pounds.
Cornmeal	6
Bran	3
Flour mids	2
Beef scrap	3

BROILER BREAD.

	Pounds.
Cornmeal	2
Bran	2
Flour mids	1
Beef scrap	½
Fine grit	¼

Mix well, stir in six raw eggs and sufficient milk to moisten.

Bake in greased pan in slow oven, and never serve sticky. Always have fine grit on the chick table.

FEATHERS AND EGGSHELLS.

Hops as a side issue and shade are a paying proposition for poultrymen. They furnish nice, cool shade and an average of $50 to the acre.

Certain incubator firms have advanced prices, while others have dropped.

The charming flavor of canvasback ducks comes from their eating a celery like cress that grows in Chesapeake bay. To add this flavor to your ducks feed them celery tops as greens for six weeks.

Fifty thousand eggs a day is said to be a thoroughbred ant's record. Tell this not to those who are eggs-aggerating in their advertising egg record breaking hens or they will claim these ants are their hens' mothers' sisters.

Fossil eggs large as a man's head have been found in Maine at an indicated depth of 7,000 feet. For the good of the community all human fossils should be buried deeper, so that future scientists may not unearth them as specimens of progressive people.

In testing eggs you will find them very slippery. Just moisten your finger tips to save a slip, but, of course, not at a tobacco stained lip.

When a poultry judge attempts to score a show while under the influence of liquor, call the bouncer. When he uses profane language, turn on the trouncer.

The grange is after a law to catch the hucksters that handle bad eggs. But we are told that the farmers sell these rotten eggs to the hucksters.

Now, if the law gets the hucksters and the farmers not,
How will that stop the "rot and spot!"

When eggs are 40 cents a dozen and poundcake sells at 10 cents, how can a baker sell cake at that price and not use "rots and spots?" Give it up? Here too.

In Arkansas they fined a young man a dollar for firing a rotten egg at a United States senator and missing him. The cold storage firms threw 50,152,740 dozens of bad eggs at the people last winter, hit them for fresh egg prices and are now loading up for another shot. Now, who's who?

Put your show coops away in a clean, dry place and lay those bitter feelings on the dark shelf of forgetfulness, where the dust and cobwebs of oblivion may bury them deep.

The joke is on a politician who on a vote hunting expedition threw off his coat and built a chicken coop for a party whose vote he sought. After soiling his clothes and sweating his shirt his request for support received the reply: "Sorry, but don't go to the polls. Haven't voted fur ten years. Politix is too rotten."

MORAL.

Let politicians not their chances wreck
By sweating in a voters' chicken coop,
But let them get the egg trust by the neck
And hang them with the law's best double loop.

If you have thrown the poultry droppings into the garden patch, turn them under before the hens are out to scratch.

Complete and Inexpensive.

Design 844, by Glenn L. Saxton, Architect.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW—FROM A PHOTOGRAPH.

FIRST FLOOR PLAN. SECOND FLOOR PLAN.

A very popular house plan because it furnishes all the requirements of a complete home. A special feature is the arrangement of the stairs. A combination stairs leads from both the living room and kitchen. There is also a combination underneath, an entrance to the kitchen and cellar stairway. The living room is large, and adjoining is the library or den. The dining room is placed in the most pleasant part of the house, the front, where one can view the street. Access to the kitchen is through the butler's pantry. Size twenty-eight feet wide and thirty-two feet deep. Cost to build, exclusive of heating and plumbing, $2,400.

By special arrangement with me the editor of this paper will furnish one complete set of plans and specifications of design No. 844 for $16.

Government Bureau's Sound Advice on Road Drainage.

REMOVE ALL WATER QUICKLY.

That on Surface and Underground as Well—Center of Highway Should Be Raised—Size of Tiles and Laying Them Matters of Importance.

The United States office of public roads in Washington sent out the following bulletin regarding the proper manner of road drainage:

With an average of 27,000 tons of water falling in the form of rain on each mile of public road in the United States annually, it is scarcely to be marveled at that the ten commandments of the road builder can be summed up succinctly in the word "drainage." The saying has truth for a basis, as good drainage is the primary requisite for all roads. Even in sand roads this holds true, for there "good drainage" means such as will safely remove the storm water without erosion or gullying and still retain the surface moisture.

To obtain good drainage one must take into consideration both the surface water and the underground water. The surface water must be removed quickly and completely and without subjecting the road to excessive scour or erosion. For this reason the center of the road should be raised, and the slope toward the side ditches should be from one-half to one inch to each foot distance, or so that the water will run freely to the side ditches and not flow down the road or remain in puddles on the roadway. The side ditches should be of ample size to care for the severest storms, with a fall of not less than six inches to each hundred feet. Frequent, ample cross drains should be constructed and every opportunity taken to get the water away from the road as quickly as possible. Any road along which you see water standing in the side ditches or on which puddles of water have collected or which has been badly gullied and eroded by the rains has poor drainage and is in need of immediate attention. In fact, earth roads nearly always require a little attention after each rain.

The split log drag is essentially a tool to maintain good drainage on our earth roads and should be used after each rain. On a heavy clay or gumbo soil the drag when properly used tends to puddle the road surface, keep it free from ruts, dense, smooth and hard, thus securing the best surface drainage possible.

But in many places the underground water is too near the surface and must be removed before a good road will be possible. This means that some form of subdrainage must be resorted to, usually tile drains or clay or concrete. Water from whatever source must be got rid of effectively. As water in freezing expands one-eighth its volume, the road heaves out of shape, and when the ice melts the road disappears beneath the rising tide of mud constantly fed by rains, melting snows and underground springs.

In seepy and boggy places the subdrainage in order to be fully effective should lower the water level to not less than three feet below the road surface. If tiles are used they should be carefully laid, true to grade. Most failures in tile drainage can be attributed to carelessness in laying or too flat grade. Tile less than four inches in diameter should rarely be used, nor should a grade of less than six inches to the hundred feet be used unless absolutely necessary. In a very dense soil it is always advisable to cover the tile to at least a depth of six to twelve inches with a coarse sand or fine gravel. Care should always be taken to procure a free outlet for the drains and to protect the outlet with a concrete bulkhead or catch basin, which can always be kept clean and the outlet free.

The kind of tile to be used depends on local conditions. Concrete tile if properly made is quite as good as clay tile. Which kind to use is entirely a local question of dollars and cents. If concrete tile can be made more cheaply than clay tile can be had, use concrete; if not, use clay tile.

Convict Labor In Building of Roads.

At a recent meeting of the national good roads board, held in New York city, Senator C. T. Lassiter of Virginia outlined the method of building roads with convicts in the Old Dominion. C. Gordon Neff, the chairman of the board, has decided to make a canvass of the entire United States to find out which states employ convicts in the building of roads. This will be followed up later with an effort to get other states to use convict labor in road building. There is a general movement to abolish convict labor in lines of the industry where it interferes with organized labor, but in no section of the country does organized labor object to the use of convicts in the building of good roads.

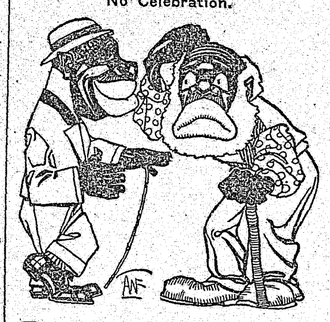

How to Clean White Marble.

To clean marble use a mixture of lemon juice and whiting or vinegar and whiting. Spread it on the marble and let it lie an hour or so and then wash off with pure water. Use no soap. Fine table salt is used also to remove a stain from marble. Oil of vitriol will remove an iron stain from marble. Let it remain on the stain for twenty minutes, then wash and dry with a soft cloth.

How to Polish the Hair.

If you are in the habit of wearing your hair plain you can polish it in the Japanese fashion. Take a piece of velvet or a small piece of woolen goods and pour a small amount of olive oil on it and shake it partly dry. Then rub it over the hair until it shines beautifully, but do not use enough of the oil to make the hair the least bit greasy.

No Celebration.

A Storekeeper Says:
"A lady came into my store lately and said:
"'I have been using a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove all winter in my apartment. I want one now for my summer home. I think these oil stoves are wonderful. If only women knew what a comfort they are, they would all have one. I spoke about my stove to a lot of my friends, and they were astonished. They thought that there was smell and smoke from an oil stove, and that it heated a room just like any other stove. I told them of my experience, and one after another they got one, and now, not one of them would give hers up for five times its cost.'"
The lady who said this had thought an oil stove was all right for quickly heating milk for a baby, or boiling a kettle of water, or to make coffee quickly in the morning, but she never dreamed of using it for difficult or heavy cooking. Now—she knows.
Do you really appreciate what a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove means to you? No more coal to carry, no more coming to the dinner table so tired out that you can't eat. Just light a Perfection Stove and immediately the heat from an intense blue flame shoots up to the bottom of pot, kettle or oven. But the room isn't heated. There is no smoke, no smell, no outside heat, no drudgery in the kitchen where one of these stoves is used.

Cautionary Note: Be sure you get this stove—see that the name-plate reads "New Perfection."

Albert C. Bolster.

Albert C. Bolster died very suddenly at his home here Tuesday evening, June 28th. He was in his usual health apparently on Tuesday and had worked at the Grand Trunk quarry, where he was employed. Mr. Bolster was born in Peru, Me., in 1850 and came to our village with his parents in 1866. He was the son of Lyman and Betsy Knight Bolster, his father being the son of Isaac and Hannah Cushman Bolster of Paris.

Lyman Bolster was one of the first traders in the town of Peru and was in business there many years. He came here in 1866 and at the time of his death in 1874 was engaged in general trade at the C. P. Knight store. Albert succeeded his father in trade and later engaged in the drug business, which he sold to A. M. Chase.

In 1874 he married Mary Louise, daugeter of Rufus K. Dunham. Of this marriage two children survive, Gertrude Bolster and Mrs. Agnes Brooks. He was a member of Jefferson Lodge of Masons. The funeral will be held on Friday.

William E. Skillings.

William E. Skillings of Sumner died, Saturday afternoon at the home of John B. Foster. Mr. Skillings has been in failing health for several months, but was confined to his room only two days previous to his death.

He was born in Boston in 1843 and was a graduate of Harvard College, and served one term in the Massachusetts Legislature.

Early in the seventies he came to Bethel, Me., with his brother, Julius P. Skillings and engaged in the spool business. For several years he has had charge of the company's branch mill at Sumner. The remains were taken to Boston, Monday in charge of his brother, Julius P. Skillings.

Samuel B. Frost of Togus is staying with friends here.

F. W. Morrison and wife are attending the Harvard Commencement this week.

Mrs. Essie Stanley and daughter Marguerete of Berlin, N. H., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Bowker last week.

Elmer R. Bowker arrived home from Colby, Thursday and after a few days stay with his parents left for Berlin, N. H., where he is employed as an electrician.

Prof. Smith of Annapolis, Md., arrived here Tuesday and will occupy the new summer cottage at Twitchell Pond built by Benjamin R. Billings. Two Chinese cooks accompanied him.

Dana O. Dudley is making repairs on his farm buidings and will build a new shed and carriage house in place of the old one, connecting the house and barn. The building will be 40x26 feet.

CASCO.

The boarders have begun to arrive for the summer season.

M. L. Leach went to Stoneham, Friday and bought four cows.

Will Holden and family are to spend the summer months at their cottage on Leach Hill.

Rev. Albert Nichols is to supply the pulpit at Casco Union church during our pastor's absence.

Mrs. Joseph Batty, who has been ill for a long time, passed to the Higher life June 20. She was loved by all who knew her. She leaves a husband, several nieces, nephews, and a host of friends. The services were held at the church, Rev. C. C. Foster officiating. Interment at Pike corner cemetery.

DENMARK.

Center primary school closes this week Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gray went to Portland last week in their automobile.

Rev. Mr. Forbes preached an excellent sermon at the Congregational church last Sunday.

Will Wentworth and wife of Brownfield were in town calling on relatives and friends, in their new automobile last Sunday.

A good many people were treated to a surprise this week in the discovery that chiselled upon one of the base stones of the Cleaves soldiers' monument now being set up at the head of Main street, Bridgton, is the inscription: "Presented by Nathan and Henry B. Cleaves."

MARRIAGES.

In Harrison, June 26, by Ernest E. Ward, Esq. Ernest W. Crocker and Clara A. Newcomb, both of Brunswick.
In Upton, June 22, Dr. Widd Twaddle of Fryeburg and Agnes Brooks of Upton.
In Rumford, June 20, by Rev. J. A. LaFlamme, William Hatch and Ida Nedeau, both of Rumford.
In Canton, June 20, by Charles H. Gilbert, Esq., Edgar M. White of Dixfield and Ina B. Burgess of Hartford.
In Rumford, June 23, by Rev. G. B. Hannaford, Clarence A. Hall and Mary A. Akers, both of Andover.
In Wakefield, Mass., June 21, by Rev. Austin Rice, Harry Maynard Wheeler, formerly of South Paris, and Alice Jeannette Walton, both of Wakefield.
In Bethel, June 25, by Rev. J. H. Little, Chas. R. Cole and Lucinda G. Goodwin, both of Bethel.
In Orisfield, June 9, Karl Eugene Whitney and Mrs. Hannah Christina Brink, both of Harrison.
In Harrison, June 14, Freeland Holmes Ricker and Nellie Evelina Twitchell.
In Norway, June 21, by Rev. Jos. D. Quinn, Joseph Beaudoin and Anna Martineau, both of Norway.

BIRTHS.

In Denmark, June 24, to the wife of Leo Smith, a daughter.
In West Buckfield, June 12, to the wife of James Richards, a son.
In West Paris, June 13, to the wife of Daniel Hilbak, a son.
In East Sumner, June 19, to the wife of Joseph Cummings, a daughter.

DEATHS.

In Dixfield, June 20, Mrs. Myrtle, widow of Joseph Newman, aged 38 years.
In Malden, Mass., June 26, Will O'Neil, aged about 30 years.
In East Hiram, June 9, Mrs. S. Maria (Hobbs) Berry, formerly of Island Pond, Vt.

Alcohol to Children

Ask your doctor how often he prescribes an alcoholic stimulant for children. He will probably say, "Very, very rarely. Children do not need stimulating." Ask him how often he prescribes a tonic for them. He will probably answer, "Very, very frequently." Then ask him about Ayer's non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla as a tonic for the young. Follow his advice. He knows. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Oxford Co. Medical Association Meeting.

The Oxford County Medical Association had its annual outing and meeting in Bethel, last week, Monday, at the Prospect House. Early in the afternoon the doctors and their wives began to arrive, by train and by auto, thus having an opportunity to see and appreciate the beauty of situation of this beautiful village and the very pleasant surroundings of our fine hotel, all of which the visitors evidently appreciated.

In the evening a business session was held which included an interesting program of music, readings, an able paper on surgery, and a dialogue.

At 10:15 p. m., the party sat down to a fine banquet, which the landlord of the Prospect House knows well how to provide. This held the close attention of the party till about 1 a. m., when adjournment was in order and in the silence of the early morning, in the still running autos, the happy party disappeared hoping for a return of a like occasion in the same place.

The people present were:—Morris H. Richardson, a specialist, of Boston; Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wheat, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. McCarty, Mr. and Mrs. J. Albert Nile, S. Evelyn Noyes, Laura E. Noyes, J. A. Green, all from Rumford; Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Farris of Oxford; Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Dixon, Wallace E. Webber and Mrs. Webber, Ernest V. Call and Mrs. Call, all of Lewiston; Dr. H. L. Bartlett and Mrs. Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Barker, Dr. and Mrs. Bial F. Bradbury, all of Norway; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Sturtevant of Dixfield; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Everett Wheeler of West Paris; Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Leslie of Andover; Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Wight, Mrs. E. Van Den Kerckhoven, Ethel Richardson, Mrs. A. Van Den Kerckhoven, E. C. Bowler, R. R. Tibbetts, all of Bethel; W. T. Rowe of Rumford; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Williamson, Mrs. W. P. Hutchins, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Phipps of Gorham, N. H.; Agnes Marcou, Mrs. Jennie Dahlman, A. B. Marcou, Esther A. Ulschoeffer, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cobb, all of Berlin, N. H.; Dr. and Mrs. D. M. Stewart, Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Littlefield, all of South Paris.

In the absence of the pastor, Tuesday afternoon, Rev. J. H. Little was asked to preside at the meeting preceeding the Communion and the Occasional Sermon.

This week a good delegation will go to Andover to attend the June meeting of the Oxford County Universalist Association, Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Little were at their cottage, "Uneeda Rest," Harpswell, on the shore of Casco Bay, last week, for a day's outing and to see that everything was ready for the August vacation trip.

J. S. Burbank carried a party from here to Paris Hill, last Sunday, and Monday, took another party to Rumford, in his auto. He has all the calls he can attend to. Wednesday he will take a party to Andover.

The Bethel Universalist parish was well represented at the Maine State Universalist Convention in Lewiston last week. Those present from here were Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Little, Mrs. O. M. Mason, Alice Mason, Mrs. Gypsey Barker, Mrs. Harry Hastings, Miss L. M. Stearns, Mrs. Annie Willey, Mrs. Nellie Sturtevant.

At the Universalist church, last Sunday evening, the delegates who attended the Lewiston Convention gave a very interesting report of the Convention meetings. The Y. P. C. U., connection with this church voted to contribute $5 toward the expense of a national Field Supt., under the direction of the National Y. P. C. U.

During May and June Rev. J. H. Little has been preaching on Sunday afternoons in the Chapel at North Newry. Through the hot weather of July and August services will be discontinued there, but begin again in September. During the month of July Mr. Little will preach, each Sunday afternoon, in the Chapel at Mason, service beginning at 2:45.

Six subordinate granges held their field day at West Bethel, Thursday, June 24. Bear River grange, Round Mountain grange, Alder River Grange, Mountain View grange, Bethel grange and Pleasant Valley. The meeting was held in Grover's birch grove.

A platform was erected under the trees upon which there was an organ to assist in the music. Quantities of bunting and flags were freely used, bunting even being wound around some of the trees, making a very pretty bower out of the speaker's stand. Many seats were also built and several hammocks and swing chairs were in use. In the rear of the grounds several large tables were arranged. Pleasant Valley grange furnished the food for several of them.

At Gardiner A. E. Morse, as master of ceremonies for the day, called upon Rev. C. L. Banghart, pastor of the Methodist church at Bethel, to offer prayer.

The general committee of Pleasant Valley grange for the occasion consisted of Fred Ordway, Harry Head, Alice Ordway and Mabel Scribner.

At 1:30 the following program was carried out: Singing by the chorus consisting of Mrs. Maud O'Riley, Angie Damon, Mina Tyler, Stella Allen, Mildred Brown, H. P. Dennison, Frank Brown, organist, Ethel Allen. Prayer was then offered by State Chaplain J. H. Little of Bethel.

State Master Stetson was introduced and given a hearty ovation.

Among the ladies who assisted with the dinner were Mrs. Alice Ordway, Mrs. Alice Brown, Mrs. Alfreda Farwell, Mrs. Mary Head, Mrs. Ethel McKenzie, Mrs. Stella Goodridge, Mrs. Bertha Sumner, Mrs. Belle Bennett, Mrs. Betty Morrill, Mrs. Maggie Lowell, Mrs. Cora Morrill, Mrs. Clara Abbott, Mabel Scribner.

For the benefit of Pleasant Valley grange delicious ice cream was sold in a tent by Mr. and Mrs. L. Sumner. This was made for the occasion by Mrs. H. P. Dennison. Souvenir cards of the day, the work of Mrs. Stella Goodrich, were sold by two little girls, Irene Morrell and Libbie Lynn Goodrich.

Briggs-Knight.

A very pretty home wedding was solemnized Wednesday afternoon, June 22, at 1 o'clock, at Floral Lawn Farm, Harrison, the home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Briggs, the bride being Cora Eva, the oldest daughter of the house, and the bridegroom Charles F. Knight of Portland. Rev. C. N. Davie of the Harrison Congregational church officiated, the double ring service being used. Coraline Pearl Pembroke, a niece and namesake of the bride, was the ring bearer and was prettily gowned in white with pink trimmings.

A large gathering of relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony which was performed on the lawn, under a spreading maple.

The bride was beautifully gowned in a white embroidered batiste gown and carried a shower bouquet of Bride's roses. The groom was dressed in the conventional black. Marion Butler of Portland acted as bridesmaid and was handsomely gowned in white over pink silk, and carried pink roses. The best man was Charles Briggs, also of Portland, and a first cousin to the bride.

The bride is one of our most esteemed young ladies and very popular. She graduated from North Bridgton academy in 1887, and for the past 12 years has been cashier in Butler's millinery establishment on Middle street, Portland. The groom is a salesman for A. W. Eustis, wholesale millinery house in Portland.

Mrs. George Flint presided at the piano, playing Lohengrin's Bridal March before the ceremony, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March at the close of the ceremony and during congratulations. A wedding breakfast was served to about 100 guests after congratulations, the happy couple leaving in an automobile, at 5 p. m., on a trip to Portland and Boston.

After September 1st they will be at home to their friends at Cumberland avenue, Portland.

The gifts were many and very beautiful, consisting of an elegant silver service, a cut glass set, china, silver of all kinds, including one-half dozen solid silver teaspoons which were given by members of the Congregational church of which the bride is a valued member; $60 in gold was also one of the gifts, two $20 gold pieces being from the bride's father, W. H. Briggs, the presents in all numbering considerably over 100, all testifying to the love and esteem with which the happy pair are regarded.

The dining room was beautifully decorated with evergreens, peonies, Bride's roses, white carnations, etc., etc. A magnificant bride's cake, ornamenting the center of one table, was made by Evelyn Briggs, a sister of the bride.

The servers at the breakfast were Josephine and Jessie Ricker. Edith Douglass and Josie Dawes.

Several vocal solos were rendered during the breakfast by a sister of the groom, Annie Knight of Portland, with Mrs. Flint at the piano. Following names are some of the prominent people at the wedding from out of town:

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Will Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Skillings, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. N. Knight, Mrs. Harriet Noyes, Mrs. Louis Kier and son, Ollie Armstrong, Arthur Abbott, Mrs. Georgia Morrison, Mrs. Myrtle Bacheldor, Annie Knight, Joseph Knight, Annie Sanborn, Alice McGrath, Portland; Mrs. Lydia Titcomb, Norway; Lucy Townsend, Watervile; Clifford Rawley, Rumford Falls; Mrs. Jack Bowser and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Maine Teachers at the N. E. A.

Only once in a decade or so does the convention of the National Education Asso. come to New England. Hundreds of Maine teachers are therefore planning to attend the meeting which will be held July 2-8.

Nearly all counties of Maine will organize special parties for the convention. These parties will add greatly to the comfort and pleasure of the teachers. Maine teachers who find it necessary to go alone, however, will be welcomed and cared for by the efficient committee on entertainment which will have representatives on all incoming Boston trains to answer inquiries regarding rooms. Guides will meet all trains and boats. Ample accommodations have been provided for thousands of teachers.

Maine will have State headquarters in company with the other New England states in the main corridor of the Old Art Museum. It is expected that a general reception for all present and former Maine teachers will be held at the State headquarters on Tuesday, July 5 from four to six o'clock.

The Maine Teachers' Association will have representatives at State headquarters throughout the convention. A section of the Harvard Stadium will be especially designated for Maine teachers for the session on Monday, July 4 when President Taft will speak. At this session there will doubtless be the greatest assemblage of teachers in the history of American conventions. All railroad and steamboat lines offer special rates for the Boston meeting.

Aged Ninety Years.

Mrs. True W. Hackett died Wednesday, June 22 at the home of her son, Alfred T. Hackett at Portsmouth, N. H. She was aged ninety years, five months and twenty-one days.

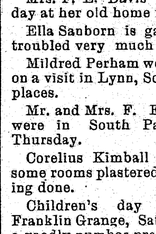

Mrs. Hackett (Lucy Gilson) was born at Waterford, and went to Oxford, where she married Mr. Hackett. She went to Portsmouth to reside with her son about six years ago, her journey hither being the first time in fifty years that she had seen a railroad. Being always a cripple she was restrained from going about.

She was a devout church woman and a member of the Congregational church, but attended the Methodist for the reason that her own church at Oxford was left without a pastor. Her son, Alfred T. Hackett, has lived in Portsmouth for about twenty years, having married a Portsmouth lady, and is employed at the navy yard as a driller. He was for five years one of the first conductors on the Portsmouth trolley road.

In the parable of the tares, hypocrites is a substitute title for the tares. Hypocrites are tares. As tares looked so like the real wheat that they grew for almost the life time of the wheat side by side with the wheat and were not discovered, so the hypocrite acts and speaks publicly as if he was really of the kingdom. As the roots of the tares had become closely connected with the roots of the wheat, so the life roots of hypocrites become interwoven in the lives of straight people. But there came a day when the tare was recognized for what it was. So there always comes a day when the hypocrite is discovered.

THIRD OPERATION PREVENTED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chicago, Ill. — "I want to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. I was so sick that two of the best doctors in Chicago said I would die if I did not have an operation. I had already had two operations, and they wanted me to go through a third one. I suffered day and night from inflammation and a small tumor, and never thought of seeing a well day again. A friend told me how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her, and I tried it, and after the third bottle was cured."—Mrs. ALVENA SPERLING, 1468 Clybourne Ave., Chicago, Ill.

If you are ill do not drag along at home or in your place of employment until an operation is necessary, but build up the feminine system, and remove the cause of those distressing aches and pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Tender Buds From Hillside Tea Gardens

We obtain our teas from the world's finest tea gardens.

These gardens are situated on lofty hillsides where the iron soil grows teas of superbly strengthening quality.

We use only the first pickings—exquisite flowery pekoe from leaves so young as to be still covered with "down." Leaves having the smoothness of flavor and rose-like bouquet that make tea so delicious.

Teas made from the coarse lower leaves lack the richness and smoothness of "Fifth Avenue" Teas. They lack the fine fragrance and nerve-soothing effects.

Moreover, they lack the distinctive characteristics that have made "Fifth Avenue" Teas the favorite with discriminating people.

THE ROARING LION.

Some Traits of the King of Beasts Nearly Human.

FACTS IN NATURAL HISTORY.

Knows How to Take Care of Himself. If a Lion Met an Alderman—Enjoys Chasing the Giraffe — Toothache Changes Growls to Whines.

By M. QUAD.

[Copyright, 1910, by Associated Literary Press.]

A lion there lived in a dell,
And lived in a way that was swell.
All the beasts he could bounce
And the natives could trounce,
And thus he was doing quite well.

THERE was a time when the lion roamed all over this country and was at home in every nook and corner of the land. Something happened to set him against the United States, and he proceeded to exchange this country for Africa. Year by year he is being killed off, and the day must soon come when the bulldog will take his place.

So the king of the African land,
He roared and he pawed up the sand.
What he wanted to greet
And chew into meat
Was a hunter with rifle in hand.

It used to be asserted by naturalists that the lion was absolutely without fear, but they have altered their opinions about that. He takes care of No. 1, the same as all other animals. If a man offers easy prey the lion is after him; if there is a doubt about the matter old Leo drops his tail and goes looking for an easier thing. A full grown lion can drag away a carcass weighing 1,500 pounds. One blow of his mighty paw would knock both Jeffries and Johnson into grease spots.

ROARS WHEN HE WAKES.

"Oh, bring on your white man," said he,
"And let him come here unto me!
By thunder, I'll scare him,
And then I will tear him!
And a wreck of a man you shall see!"

It is said by trainers of wild beasts that should an alderman meet a lion in a lonely spot and refuse to divvy up with him there would be a terrible combat. The alderman would probably triumph in the end, because virtue always triumphs over vice, but he would be covered with porous plasters from head to heel for a year to come. If you will put your hand through the bars of a lion's cage at the zoo you will get a pretty good idea of the strength of his jaws. Keep watch of his left eye. He always winks it before he bites.

Result of One Hunt.

This lion, so brave and so bold,
He had a good wife who was old.
"The white man beware
Or you'll come to despair,"
Was often the story she told.

The natives of Africa assemble to the number of 200 to hunt the lion, and it is only after they have got him all mixed up that they succeed in killing him. On one of these hunts a few years ago the lion killed forty men before he fell beneath the spears of the survivors. Of course there are plenty of lions who never saw a white man, and they judge them from the standard of the natives. In time, however, they find out their mistake. The one we are speaking of will in time, but meanwhile:

But old Leo, he roared the more,
And then he most dreadfully swore
By the beard of his dad
That he was so mad
He wanted a barrel of gore.

Gordon Cummings, the great lion slayer of years ago, measured the spring of a lion and found it to be thirty-four feet. This beats the best record of the tiger by eight feet. For the first half mile the lion can maintain the pace of the swiftest horse, but then his trolley begins to slip off the wire, and he lets up and finally comes to a halt with the exclamation of "What's the use?" When the lion is in playful mood he runs a giraffe for five or six miles. He knows he can't catch him, but he has lots of fun seeing the gi's heels throwing up the sand. But we left our bluffer roaring for gore.

He roared some more, and he said:
"I've fought 'em and licked 'em and bled
Just let me get sight
Of a white man some night,
And a roar—and he will be dead!'

Roars When He Wakes.

If the afternoon be cloudy a lion will go abroad seeking his prey, but otherwise he will wait till sundown. His first act on rising from sleep is to roar. The roar can be heard for four miles on a still night. The lion not only likes to hear his own voice, like a great many men, but the roar says to every living thing within sound: "You fellers all make your skiddo, for I'm awake and about to take a promenade. If I find any of you in my path it will be bad for some one." Mr. Cummings had the curiosity to follow the trail of a hungry lion made at night and found that the beast covered a distance of twenty-eight miles. The lion lives on fresh meat entirely and will not touch any game killed by any other animal. It is well for him that there are no beef trusts in Africa, as he can and does eat seventy pounds of fresh meat at one time. But let us get along toward the climax, for there's one coming for sure.

His bones they shall bleach in the sun
When the curtain goes down on the fun.
His friends in despair
Won't find hide nor hair
Of the impudent son of a gun.

In the Royal zoo of England there is a lion that wears spectacles to improve his failing sight, and he seems quite content with them. Almost every lion brought to this country suffers with toothache sooner or later and has to have from one to three molars extracted. Unless the tooth is almost ready to fall out it takes two men and a big pair of pinchers to do the job. It is then that the king shows the yellow streak in him and whines and howls. But we are drawing to a close.

One eve as he wandered afar,
A-roaring to lift up your ha'r,
He ran agin Teddy.
The bullet was ready,
And Leo was deader than tar.

Not So Clever After All.

A young man in Washington who is considered very clever by those who know him tells a good story with himself as the "goat."

While touring on the continent last summer he had occasion to travel from London to Liverpool and was walking up and down the station looking for an empty carriage in the express which was about to start. His search was fruitless, however, and, assuming an official air, he stuck his head in the rear carriage and cried in a stentorian voice: "All change here! This carriage isn't going!"

There were angry exclamations from the occupants, but they hurried from the compartment and found places in other parts of the train. The smile on the young man's face was childlike as he settled himself comfortably on the seat.

"Ah," he murmured, "it's a grand thing for me that I was born clever! I wish that they would hurry up and start."

By and by the station master put his head in the window and said:

"I suppose you are the smart young man who said this carriage wasn't going."

"Yes," said the clever one, and he smiled.

"Well," said the station master, with a grin, "it isn't going. The porter heard you telling the people, and he uncoupled it. He thought you were a director."—Washington Times.

The Sitting Hen.

A hen left to herself will get off her nest very early in the morning, when the air is cool. She has the eggs heated to 103 or 104 degrees. She gets off the nest, and the cool air, coming in contact with the warm eggs, causes the moisture to precipitate, and this moistens them sufficiently without any additional moisture.

Republican County Convention

Was held at the Court House, South Paris, last Tuesday. The full quota of delegates, 91, and many friends and visitors were present.

Hon. John P. Swasey, congressman of the Second District, was present and made chairman of the convention. On taking the chair he made a good speech such as Swasey alone can make. He reaffirmed his belief in the Republican party, Roosevelt and Taft and defended his actions in Congress from the wicked Democrats in general—D. J. McGillicuddy in particular. His speech was well received and attentively listened to and he was often cheered.

Hon. John A. Roberts of Norway made the nomination of Col. A. J. Stearns of Norway for senator. There being no opposition he was nominated by acclamation. T. L. Eastman of Fryeburg seconded the nomination.

In about a dozen words Alton C. Wheeler of Paris placed the name of the present encumbent of the Clerk of Courts office before the Convention and Judge Chas. F. Whitman was nominated by acclamation.

Asst. Attorney General Chas. P. Barnes of Norway nominated Geo. M. Atwood of Paris for County Treasurer, for the sixth consecutive term. Accepted by acclamation.

Hon. Waldo Pettingill of Rumford said it was customary to give the County Attorney two terms, and nominated Ralph T. Parker of Rumford and it was ratified by the Convention.

Judge A. E. Herrick, Bethel, nominated J. Hastings Bean for Register of Deeds, Eastern District, and Eckley Ballard of Fryeburg for Register for the Western District. These went through by acclamation.

Eben Fox, Lovell, presented the name of Geo. Willis Walker for County Commissioner for the six year term. This nomination was seconded by Hon. Waldo Pettingill of Rumford. Edwin R. Batcheldor of Porter was put in nomination by O. L. Stanley of Porter and seconded by Hon. Jas. S. Wright, Paris.

Here there were two candidates for the same office and Stanley Bisbee of Rumford asked that a committee to receive, sort and count the votes be named by the Chair, and Stanley Bisbee of Rumford, M. W. Stearns, Lovell and Frank A. Taylor of Paris were named.

The delegates were requested to come forward and put their ballots in the hat as the towns were called by the Chair. Result, 90 votes cast: E. R. Batcheldor had 44 and Geo. W. Walker 46 and the latter was nominated.

F. N. Dyer of Buckfield placed the name of Wellington H. Eastman of East Sumner as a candidate for Commissioner for the unexpired term and he was nominated by acclamation.

A struggle of the real thing was on who should receive the nomination for Sheriff. The canvas has been on for many weeks and there have been four candidates and each one wanting it.

Walter L. Gray of Paris made a rattling good speech and set forth the claims and qualities of the Paris candidate, Wm. J. Wheeler, in good shape and this was handsomely seconded by Hon. J. A. Roberts of Norway.

Editor E. C. Bowler of Bethel presented the name of Deputy Sheriff Fred F. Bean in glowing colors and terms and it was fittingly seconded.

Chas. P. Barnes of Norway in one of his clear cut, logical speeches, told the Convention why J. Melvin Bartlett of East Stoneham should be their choice.

Geo. W. Q. Perham of Woodstock explaincd the need of having his town and townsman recognized and presented to the Convention the name of the deputy sheriff and jailer, Harry D. Cole, for the office of Sheriff.

Hons. J. A. Roberts, J. S. Wright and Dean A. Ballard spoke, the first pressing the claims of Wheeler and the two latter the fitness and expediency of giving the honor to Harry D. Cole.

A committee to receive, sort and count the votes was asked by W. L. Gray and the Chair appointed Mr. Gray of Paris, H. D. Bryant of Woodstock and Chas. P. Barnes of Norway for that duty.

The four ballots resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes cast.....91
Necessary for a choice.....46

	1st	2d	3d	4th
H. D. Cole	21	18	1
F. F. Bean	12	9	5	2
W. J. Wheeler	34	37	41	28
J. M. Bartlett	24	27	44	51

The defeated candidates with good grace and speeches asked the Convention to make the nomination for Sheriff unanimous by personally withdrawing and asked their supporter to give their support to the successful nominee—J. M. Bartlett.

The following Republican County committee were chosen for the next two years: L. W. Blanchard, Rumford; W. Scott Bearce, Hebron: A. C. Wheeler, South Paris; Addison L. Millett, Waterford; E. C. Bowler, Bethel; O. L. Stanley, Porter; Maurice Forster, Dixfield.

Mrs. W. S. Leavitt of Fryeburg have visited at H. W. Palmer's and Mrs. Sophy McAllister's.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McAllister of Lynchville has called on his mother, Mrs. Sophy McAllister.

J. W. Kendall of Center Lovell, George Andrews of West Lovell and Will Smith of Stow were guests at Perley McKeen's last Friday.

Alvah Gammon is to help Herbert Adams do some carpenter work on the camp he bought this spring, near his home on the shore of Lake Kezar.

L. F. Kenney of Bridgton accepted the invitation of Crescent lodge, I. O. O. F., to give a lecture on Odd Fellowship for the benefit of the Order, at the hall here, last Friday. It was an eloquent and able discourse and was greatly enjoyed by the goodly crowd present. After the exercises in the hall a fine supper, by the Rebekahs, was served to which all did ample justice. Mr. McKenney was accompanied by his friend, Mr. Libby of Bridgton and there was a delegation from several lodges in this locality.

We have received a box of 33 strawberries from Roy Edwards of Oxford. The box is heaping full and more too. The berries grow from 4 to 5½ inches. How many of this kind Mr. Edwards has raised we do not know, neither do we know the name of the variety. They are good lookers anyhow. They were delivered by Louis Trebilcock, the driver of the Oxford Home Bakery team.

This picnic, the first event of the kind in the history of Maine festivals, will ever linger in the memory of those who were so fortunate as to be present. At least 20 cities and towns were represented and while the gathering would have been a little larger had the trip been made last Saturday, as was originally planned, the partp was of just about the right size to make it a "real good time." The weather couldn't have been better.

The party came up over the Grand Trunk, a special train leaving Portland at 8.15 in the morning. The cars were pretty well filled. The train arrived at the station shortly before noon and several hundred people were lined up to see it. The stop was made above the station and Prof. Chapman was there to give everybody a cordial welcome.

A six-horse team was in readiness to convey the wraps and lunch boxes and baskets and there were also a number of teams and five or six automobiles to carry those who preferred riding to walking.

Following the autos and teams came a long procession and when they reached the house, which has a beautiful location, Mrs. Chapman was there to greet them. The guests were told to wander about the house as much as they pleased and when they had admired the furnishings in the different rooms they were shown the four colts, Prof. Chapman has some pretty fine specimens of horseflesh.

Having looked these animals over the singers lined up for a picture and then started on the three-mile tramp to the place where they had dinner, the comissary wagon having preceded them some time. The walk was as pretty as one could wish for, a part of the time through the woods, and the rest with an excellent view of a broad intervale with the mountains in the distance.

Several tables had been set in the yard and when these were filled the remainder of the crowd sat on the grass. But beans were not the only good things provided. There were stacks of doughnuts and cookies and gallons of fruit punch and hot coffee, so everybody was suited. Prof. and Mrs. Chapman looked happy as they looked out over the company and Edward A. Noyes of Portland looked after the talking machines that furnished the music for the occasion, the greater part of the selections being reproductions of numbers by grand opera stars.

Following the dinner Prof. Fink was introduced and he said that he had always wanted to hear the Maine singers but had to go back to New York every season before the festival opened. He spoke of Madame Nordica and how he had sent to her a number of jars of mountain cranberries that he picked in this vicinity.

Prof. Chapman spoke of his pleasure at having the company present, and Mrs. Chapman, as usual, made a nice little speech. She said that the company was so scattered when they sat down to eat that they could not have a blessing on the beans, though there were two ministers present. At her request, though, the Rev. M. Curtis, pastor of the Congregational church, offered thanks then and the visitors sang, "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow."

More than two-thirds of the guests, led by Prof. Chapman, enjoyed the tramp up the mountain side, which took about 45 minutes.

Then Prof. Chapman got busy lining up the sopranos, tenors, and other singers, and when their pictures had been taken for the s'teenth time the grand old Hallelujah chorus was sung, with Chapman as leader.

Everybody had been looking forward to this event for several weeks and Prof. Chapman not only made his visitors exceedingly happy with the entertainment which he provided, but he also aroused the greatest enthusiasm imaginable among State o' Maine folks when he informed them that while the estate was theirs for the day, later on it would belong to the festival for keeps, if plans which he has made are carried out to completion.

The whole Chapman estate, embracing hundreds of acres, will probably be deeded to the festival and on it be built a costly "shack," where professor said he would raise $5000 towards the construction of the shack if the festival would raise an equal sum and he appointed A. S. Woodman, Solomon W. Bates and George E. Smith a committee to take the matter up in Portland, while it will also be brought to the attention of the choruses in other places. Two or three little speeches were made after the good news had been given the singers and when the crowd had cheered some more, Prof. Chapman being honored with several rounds, all lined up to march back to the house for ice cream.

The return down the mountain to the house was in much quicker time than the ascent and the party was greeted with songs by those whom they left behind. It seems as though a cord of ice cream bars was consumed, and then Mrs. Chapman wouldn't let the people go until they had sung the "Hallelujah" chorus for her. There was more cheering for Prof. and Mrs. Chapman and the good people of Bethel who rendered not a little assistance, and the march to the station began. But not every one walked Prof. Chapman had his new auto running back and forth, the other machines were kept busy and the number of teams was considerably augmented, for all of which many were truly thankful. As the train got away at 6.30 host and hostess stood on the embankment and said "Good-bye," while there was a great fluttering of handkerchiefs from the cars.
